

Environment Policy Statement

Cook Ground Investigation Limited is committed to the provision of geo-environmental drilling services in a manner that ensures a safe and healthy workplace for our employees and minimises our potential impact on the environment. We operate in compliance with all relevant environmental legislation and we will strive to use pollution prevention and environmental best practices in all we do.

Cook Ground Investigation Limited is committed to:

- integrating the consideration of environmental concerns and impacts into all of our decision making and activities,
- promote environmental awareness among our employees and encourage them to work in an environmentally responsible manner;
- train, educate and inform our employees about environmental issues that may affect their work;
- complying with client's site specific environmental requirements;
- reduce waste through re-use and recycling and by purchasing recycled, recyclable or re-furnished products and materials where these alternatives are available, economical and suitable;
- promote efficient use of materials and resources including water, electricity, raw materials and other consumables, particularly those that are non-renewable,
- avoiding unnecessary use of hazardous materials and products, seek substitutions when feasible, and take all reasonable steps to protect human health and the environment when such materials must be used, stored and disposed of;
- where required by legislation or where significant health, safety or environmental hazards exist, develop and maintain appropriate emergency and spill response programmes;
- communicating our environmental commitment to clients, customers and the public and encourage them to support it; and
- continually improve our environmental performance and minimise the social impact and damage of activities by periodically reviewing our environmental policy in light of our current and planned future activities.

This Policy shall:

- apply to all of Cook Ground Investigation's activities including office and site based work;
- be communicated to and complied with, by all staff working for or on behalf of the company and be made available to all clients, contractors and other stakeholders including the public; and
- be periodically reviewed to ensure its continued focus, relevance and fulfilment.
